

Linda Cunningham
Project Leader
Gold Coast City Council

---

BIOGRAPHY

---

Born in the UK and spending the early part of her career in the television industry, Linda arrived in Australia in 1984 to commence work as host of a lifestyle show with Channel 10 in Brisbane, while setting up home on the Gold Coast with her family..

Linda specialised in public and community relations, marketing, advertising, and problem solving, and has used these skills in a variety of roles, where she says the greatest satisfaction is helping people to achieve their full potential, and motivating them to work together to achieve common goals.

Her roles have included:

- Co-host of “Living” for Channel 10 Brisbane
- Gold Coast Manager for international PR firm Charlton & Charlton
- Executive Director for the Royal Women’s Hospital Foundation
- Community and Promotions Manager for Gold Coast Indy
- Promotions Manager for Myer Gold Coast
- Special Projects and Membership Manager for Gold Coast Tourism
- Project Leader – Broadband, Economic Development, Gold Coast City Council